

2018 International Concours d`Elegance Results

Concours d` Equipe

For the vehicle, drivers & passengers who will be wearing appropriate period dress that, in the view of the judges, symbolises the veteran era.

Winner: Mr Chris Sorensen

Country: Australia

Car type: 1901 Steam Locomobile

Car Number: 105

Period Motoring Attire

For the person who is wearing appropriate dress that in the view of the judges symbolises the motoring attire worn in Veteran era.

Winner: Chris Bates

Country: United Kingdom

Car type: 1904 De Dion Bouton

Car Number: 327

Historic Veteran Car Award

For the car with the most the impressive provenance in either continues ownership, historical connections, or an unrestored vehicle.

Winner: Antonio Calleri

Country: Italy

Car type: 1900 Renault

Car Number: 47

Original and / or Unrestored Veteran Car

The vehicle which most accurately represents the specification of the vehicle when new, In every detail, this may be an unrestored vehicle.

Winner: Bernard Holmes

Country: United Kingdom

Car type: 1902 Columbia (electric)

Car Number: 117

The Judges Overseas Award

An award with no specific or technical criteria, given to an overseas participant as selected as the judge's favourite of the day for whatever reason – as they see fit.

Winner: Surahammars Kommun

Country: Sweden

Car type: 1903 Vabis

Car Number: 249

Concours d` Elegance Light Vehicle Award

For the small vehicle which embodies the sprit of the Veteran era, in composition of the coachwork, paintwork, upholstery. This may be an unrestored vehicle.

Winner: Tim Summers

Country: United Kingdom

Car type: 1901 Georges Richard

Car Number: 69

The Spectators Choice Award

As voted by the public for their favourite Veteran of the day.

Winner: David Pain

Country: United Kingdom

Car type: 1904 Albion

Car Number: 263

Concours d` Elegance overall Winner

The overall winner as nominated by the Judges

Winner: Harold Pritchard

Country: United Kingdom

Car type: 1903 De Dion Bouton

Car Number: 241